

Power Solutions Sales Support

▶▶▶▶ Continuing Professional Development (CPD)

In response to requests from consultancies, FG Wilson, in conjunction with Power Electrics, are pleased to offer a comprehensive course of CPD seminars. These seminars are designed to assist consulting engineers, involved in the process of specifying, planning and laying out the standby power requirements on civil projects.

FG Wilson and Power Electrics have vast experience of bespoke mechanical and electrical power system designs throughout the UK and Ireland.

These courses will help you and your colleagues gain a greater understanding of the principles involved in the installation and maintenance of power generation.
